

Please do not weaken Indiana's no-call law. Since I have been on the list, I have enjoyed freedom from phone solicitors, and I hope for that freedom to continue. I used to get at least a call a day from companies selling things I didn't want or need, and it was a waste of my time to even answer the phone. This is a wonderful law, and it should remain as-is.